

-----PRESS RELEASE-----

Release Date: Immediate

Wichita, KS – Sunrise Oilfield Supply is excited to announce the acquisition of Pratt Pump and Supply (PP&S) from Steve Thomas of Pratt, KS. Since Sunrise's arrival in Pratt in the early part of 2025 it recognized Steve and Pratt Pump and Supply as an upstanding, knowledgeable, and successful competitor. The combination of PP&S into the existing facility of Sunrise in Pratt enables Sunrise to create a valued presence in the Pratt community as well as bringing expert experience to our Pratt pump shop by hiring Brett Thomas (Steve's son) to manage our Pratt pump shop. Brett brings 20+ years down hole pump experience to our store as well as retaining Steve on a contract basis for a period to facilitate the transition of customers from PP&S to Sunrise.

Steve Thomas acknowledged his appreciation to God and his customers for the past 30 years of support. He is excited for this opportunity for himself and his son to be part of a successful company and continue to serve their longstanding customer base.

Effective date of the acquisition is January 2, 2026. Steve and Brett will be utilizing their skills for Sunrise to further enhance our business in Pratt beginning on that date.
